Trip to the Casino

On August 27th 2010 we once again made our annual visit to the Adelaide Casino, 43 members and friends came on the trip. The coach pick up was at 9.15am and arrival was planned to be 10.00am which all worked out as planned despite some members wondering if the driver knew his way, and he did (Jimbo). After we had all signed in it was off to the pokies for some, and away for a cup of coffee for others. The bus trip was free and the lunch was all you could eat for $9.90 in the Pullman Restaurant, or a set meal in the Junction Bar. Did our members take advantage of the all you could eat yours truly included, so much choice you just had to have a piece of it all, which most did. Home about 3.30.. And the winners were grinners but most were not grinners.

A real nice day well organised by Nigel and our thanks to him.

For all of you in education, with sons, grandsons, or who just love the things little kids say ~ a reminder that adult words are often taken literally.....

'Circumcised'

A teacher noticed that a little boy at the back of the class was squirming around, scratching his crotch, and not paying attention.

She went back to find out what was going on.

He was quite embarrassed and whispered that he had just recently been circumcised and he was quite itchy.

The teacher told him to go down to the principal's office.

He was told to telephone his mother and ask her what he should do about it.

He did and returned to his class.

Suddenly, there was a commotion at the back of the room.

She went back to investigate only to find him sitting at his desk with his 'private part' hanging out.

'I thought I told you to call your mum!' she said.

'I did,' he said, 'And she told me that if I could stick it out until lunchtime, she'd come and pick me up from school'

Quiz Night

Drama was not in it on the day of our Quiz Night.

Our booked Quiz Master fell sick on the day and was not able to attend, just imagine at 2.00pm trying to organise a Quiz Master at that time of day for the same night. Many phone calls later we managed to contact Chris McRae who agreed to do the job. There were 19 tables on the night and Chris did a magnificent job at such short notice. Every one seemed to enjoy themselves, the eventual winners were the table made up of the Healey, Blakeney family and they won dinner vouchers for the Bremen Hotel a very good sponsor of the club. Run jointly by Modbury Kiwanis and Hope Valley Bowling Club it was a very successful evening.

Finally - - An answer I can Understand

A visiting tourist asks an Irishman:

"Why do Scuba divers always fall backwards off their boats?"

To which the Irishman replies:

"If they fell forwards, they'd still be in the bloody boat."

There was a fellow who worked for Australia Post whose job it was to process all mail that had illegible addresses. One day a letter came addressed in a shaky handwriting to God. So he opened it up and read "Dear God, I am an 83 year old widow living on a very small pension and yesterday someone stole my purse. There was $100 in it which was all the money I had until my next pension. Next Sunday is Easter and I had invited two of my friends over for dinner and without that money I have nothing to buy food and I have no family to turn to. You are my only hope so can you please help me?" The postal worker was touched and went and showed the letter to all the others. Each of them dug into their wallets and came up with a few dollars and after he made the rounds he had collected $96. He put it in an envelope and sent it over to her and for the rest of the day the workers all felt a warm glow thinking of the nice thing they had done. Easter came and went and a few days later another letter came from the old lady to God. All the workers gathered around while the letter was opened. It read "Dear God, How can I ever thank you enough for what you did for me?"

Because of your generosity, I was able to fix a lovely dinner for my friends. We had a very nice day and I told my friends of your wonderful gift. But by the way, there was $4 missing, I think it must have been those thieving posties that work at Australia Post."

TEACHER: Harold, what do you call a person who keeps on talking when people are no longer interested

HAROLD:  A teacher

TEACHER: Clyde , your composition on 'My Dog' is exactly the same as your brother's. Did you copy his?

CLYDE : No, sir. It's the same dog.

TEACHER: Now, Simon, tell me frankly, do you say prayers before eating?*

SIMON: No sir, I don't have to, my Mom is a good cook.

House Manager

We have a house manager for the club, Brian Scarlet has agreed to do this most important work. I would ask all members to assist him when ever ask, it is not his job to prepare the club rooms for events, just to keep the club house clean and tidy. We the members will be expected to leave the clubhouse in a clean and tidy order when we have finished any event failure to do this will mean permission the next time ask may be refused.
